To whom it may concern,

DAVID SIMKINS

I have known David since May 2020 when he produced a musical piece for Futurepreneur, UK's largest virtual summit for young entrepreneurs. David created fantastic intro and outro pieces, which were used by Future Minds Network UK.

Throughout the event, David showcased incredible professionalism and produced a number of different demos within a challenging time-frame and uncertainty.

David made a positive and strong impression, even whilst navigating a 9-hour time difference. He demonstrated clear talent in his ability to transition between different genres and styles to suit the nature of the video content.

I have every confidence that David is more than capable to undertake further musical engagements and would strongly recommend him for such opportunities.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries.

Sincerely,

Nathaniel Diong
